Career Tips for Employees and Job Seekers

The Mile High PMI invited DJN to assist job seekers at their Job Search Skills Camp on September 21st.

Guest Speaker Maureen Dieckmann who runs the 905 Networking Group advised employees to continue to grow professionally because those who are coasting will be at the top of a layoff list. If your employer has changed what you want to do or if you see the writing on the wall, start thinking about your next opportunity ASAP. Make a list of your top ten employers and start networking now.

For active job seekers, she emphasized the importance of knowing yourself, creating your personal brand and storytelling in your career search. For those who don't know where to begin, start with a free character strengths assessment, such as Viasurvey.org. For this and 30+ links to career resource websites, visit the Employment Resources for general job seekers section of our website.
